

seeing roe deer backs gold among the dark is an organ deep blue and red-green and golden sounds and you move your idle hand from the woods to the water the bright world
a gentle fin kisses the frill on the swaying stems and the brilliant pebble smooth as the word in the mouth your mouth closed
your idle hand